Jerome Godfrey Commodity Sales Trader

Born and raised in France by Englishspeaking parents, Jerome majored in International Trade. He began his career as a customs forwarder specializing in seafood at the port of Marseille, where he worked for 11 years and eventually directed the seafood logistics department.

Following his success, a client requested that he establish a logistics department to facilitate the import of frozen goods into France. Jerome worked with this client for 13 years, initiating trading activities and expanding his network of customers and vendors.

With a total of 24 years in the seafood industry, Jerome's experience has taken him around the world, meeting suppliers and customers alike. He has a passion for seafood, enjoys listening to music, playing soccer, fishing, and loves cooking. Jerome is also enthusiastic about traveling and meeting people from different cultures and origins.
